

FAMILY FUN & Festival GUIDE 2026

Dear Friends,

Tourism is an important part of Michigan's economy. Visitors come from far and wide to experience all that makes Michigan so special. Those of us who call Michigan home don't have to travel far. We have direct access to the endless events that our state has to offer.

I'm pleased to share a small sampling of the many unique events taking place this summer. From local parades to national festivals that attract guests from all over the world, Michigan's hometown celebrations are not to be missed. This guide highlights events across metro Detroit and throughout Michigan to keep you entertained all summer long. You can access additional information and even more activities at Michigan.org.

I hope this information helps you plan your family's next adventure! Safe travels, and best wishes for a beautiful Pure Michigan summer.

Sincerely,

JIM RUNESTAD
